

CYBERSECURITY IN THE PANDEMIC

We surveyed more than 150 hiring managers and information security decision makers within medium to large enterprise organizations to gain insights into how their hiring, goal-prioritization, and budgeting initiatives have changed.

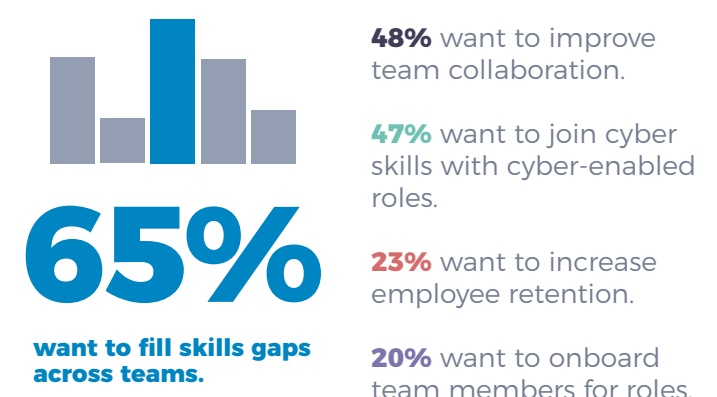

Major Training & Workforce Challenges

*3% of participants responded "Other".

Short-Term Workforce Goals

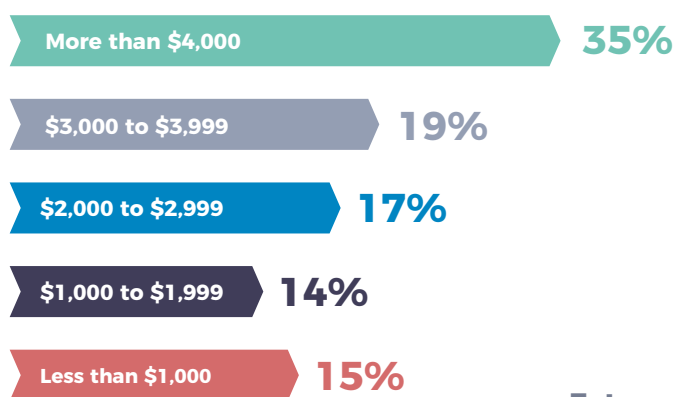

Organizations are investing in efforts to improve cybersecurity skills within roles. Efficient skills training reduces time and increases job satisfaction.

*3% of participants responded "Other".

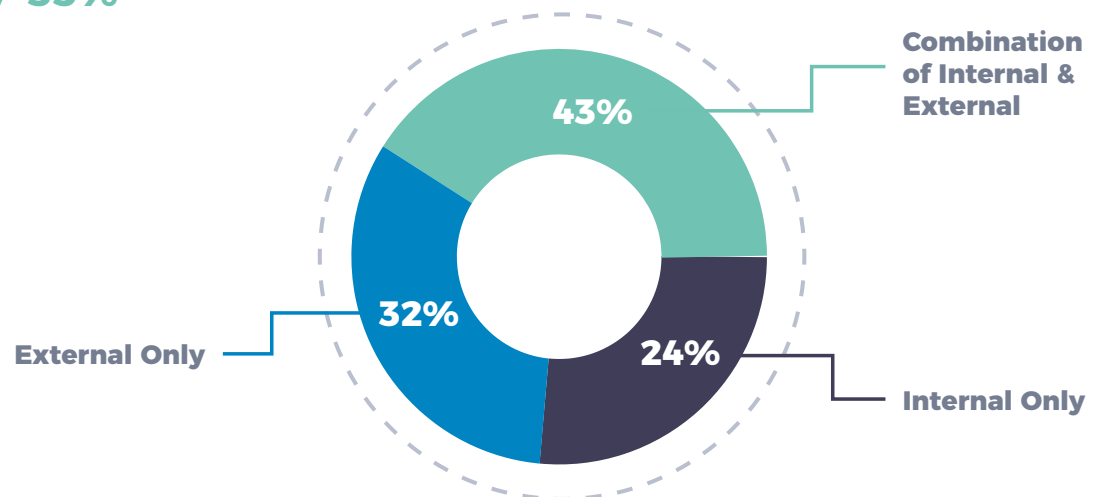

Average Annual Training Investment Per Employee

The average annual training investment for cybersecurity employees is $2,950.

Internal vs. External Training

Cybersecurity training is often fulfilled through internal training programs, but 75% of organizations also rely on third-party training partners.

Make Training Meaningful Small Changes to Make a Big Impact

Over half of the respondents acknowledged that action should be rooted in data. Organizations recognize that planning provides real benefits to their investments, particularly when resources are limited.

*1% of participants responded "Other".

CyberVista is a cybersecurity training and workforce development company. We help organizations achieve their goals by providing data and metrics to drive training decisions.